Foreword

A garden best depicts the sentiments that we, the class of Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-seven, hold for our high school life. The years we have spent in school have been the cultivating period of our lives. Our teachers have been gardening with us since we entered first grade. Our food has been comprised of many and varied courses of study; our extra-curricular activities, dances, and parties have supplied us with an abundance of sunshine. The area in which we have grown from seedlings to mature plants has provided us with fertile soil. These are the elements that have aided our gardeners in preparing us for harvest. As we travel all over the world furnishing food for others to grow on, we will always remember with pride the garden in which we matured.

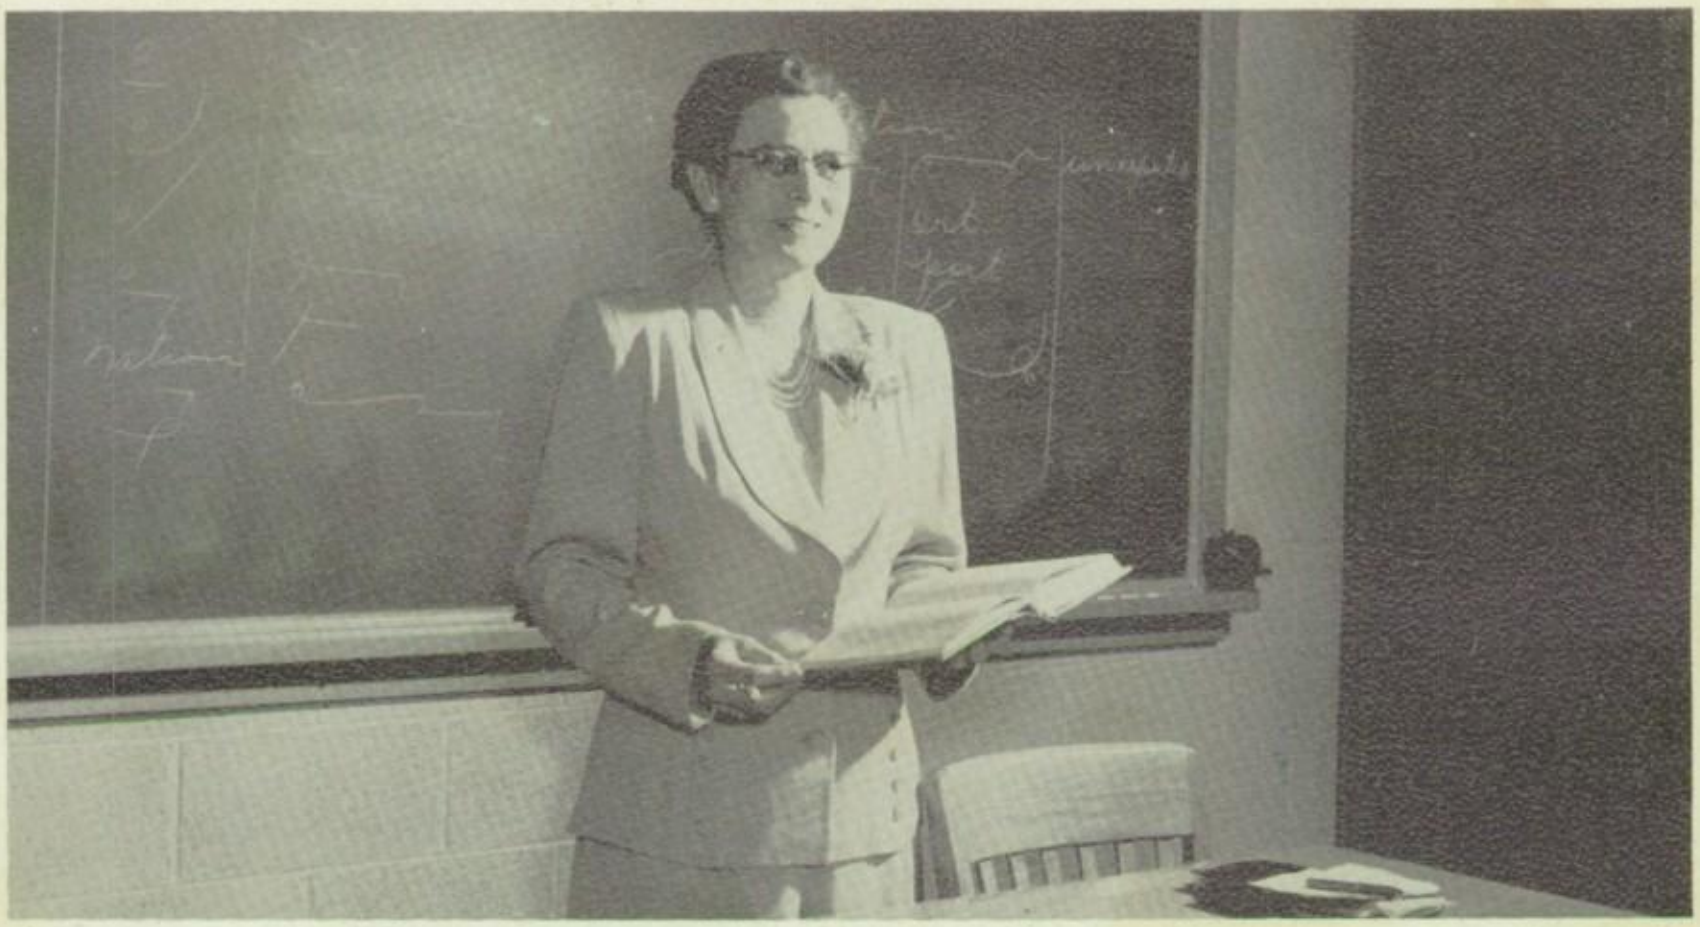
The Dedication of Our Yearbook



to Mrs. Vaden M. Herrington

is our small way of thanking her for all that she has done to further the social and intellectual education of those in our class. She has been patient as an instructor, faithful as a friend, and dependable as an advisor. All of us are both proud and grateful to have known and worked with Mrs. Herrington during our high school careers.

Appreciation . . .

is much too small a word to use in expressing what we feel toward those people who have worked so very hard to help make our yearbook a reality. To Mrs. Ethel R. Yerkes, our chief advisor, for her faithful help and much needed suggestions; Mrs. Samuel Penfield, for her cheerful and informative advice; Miss Jacqueline Hannum, for her inspired work with our art staff; and Mr. J. W. McMullen and Dr. James Moore, for their sincere interest and cooperation, we give our most humble and grateful thanks.

"Alma Mater, Alma Mater,"

Deeply carved on every heart,

Shall be found unwavering, true,

When we from life shall part.

High School life, at best, is passing

Gliding swiftly by,

Let us pledge in word, in deed,

Our Love for Oxford High.

Far across life's mighty ocean

To thee our loyal hearts we raise

Sturdy stands our firm devotion

Our voices sing thy praise.

Through the years that are before us,

We'll strive—in war, in peace,

We'll always keep your light to guide us,

Until our work will cease.

"Alma Mater, Alma Mater,"

Follow knowledge to the skies

Oxford's light will clearly glow,

Sealed by friendship's ties.

The progressive work of the Joint Board of Education has a direct bearing on the high school career, and thus on the future career as a citizen, of each and every student in the Oxford Area Schools. From those of us who are now at the end of that high school career and at the threshold of that vast career of citizenship comes a sincere expression of gratitude and appreciation for the enormous part that the achievements of the Board have played in helping to prepare us for what lies ahead.

Supervising Principal

J. W. McMULLEN

To the Seniors:

When the three young ladies asked me to write something for their yearbook, I asked them, "What is your theme?" They replied, "Country Gardens." For this subject I had an immediate interest for at an early age I was a gardener in a real "Country Garden" down beyond the Big Elk Creek. There, in addition to the vegetables and fruits, I remember a variety of flowers planted in good order.

The urge to plant a garden and watch it grow is as widespread as the soil itself. This urge is shared by all mankind—"savage and civilized, ancient and modern, poor and rich."

The occupation of gardening fits people of all ages; no one is too old or too young for it. Interest in it grows with knowledge and manifests a different charm at varying ages.

From my study of literature, I recall that Tennyson calls Father Adam "the grand old gardener"; and Shakespeare says, "There are no ancient gentlemen but gardeners."

From history I learn that the Egyptians had irrigated gardens as early as 2,000 B.C. I have no doubt that your history teacher pointed out to you—especially the boys—the fact that in order to gratify the beautiful girl he took for a wife, Nebuchadnezzar built the Hanging Gardens of Babylon, one of the Seven Wonders of the World. To Amuhia, who had come from the Land of the Medes where there were hills and trees, these beautiful gardens were a breath of home.

Much can be learned from gardens and gardening. A garden is a wonderful school. In it all the instructors teach by silent but interesting object lessons, and all the pupils "learn to do by doing." Cultivation of the garden gives physical benefit through the healthful outdoor exercise, and the exercise has the added value of being creative.

A garden teaches regard for the rights of others, because one who has cared for a plant from its seedtime to maturity understands what ownership means. The gardener learns that success comes from work.

In the good garden there is an orderliness which has brought forth the comment that gardening is the oldest of the arts.

We in the Oxford Area High School have been "gardening" with the Class of 1957 for twelve years. As we harvest our "crop" at graduation, we shall be looking for "big stalks"—fine specimens of physical fitness and "full eared" with the knowledge that "as we sow so shall we reap." Sow to reap an acceptable Personality, good Character, Initiative, Determination, Leadership and Reverence.

Best wishes for much success in worthwhile things.

TO THE SENIORS:

Although I have only had the privilege of knowing the members of the senior class for one school year, I have had time to appreciate the many talents and potentialities represented in this class. As graduates you are going into a great wide world of unlimited frontiers. We trust you have learned to stand on your own two feet and to walk true to the convictions that may be yours. Keep your eyes on the frontiers of the future just beyond the horizon of your high school days where a challenging world awaits you.

My best wishes to you as you graduate from high school.

CLASS POEM

The fun we've had within these walls!
The times we've romped and roamed the halls!
But now all this is done and past,
Our twelve school years have gone so fast.

The chain of friendships left behind—
The future joys it helps us find—
This chain is formed of many bars.
Our ideals point us to the stars.

We know that deep in every life
There's much of joy, and much of strife;
But if we work, and laugh, and pray,
We'll find that hardships fade away.

Now that school days are over at last,
We shall look backward to the past,
And pray, within each life, to find
Much happiness of every kind.

Dreams, hopes, ambitions, skills—
These still are ours, if we but will
Them so. Now our lives turn
To separate roads, new goals to earn.

Class History

CLASS OF 1957, HOW DID YOUR GARDEN GROW? . . . WITH CAREFUL GUILDANCE TO GAY YOUNG BLADES AND PRETTY MAIDS ALL IN A ROW.

Our activities as a class really began in '53, our Freshman year. Under a bower of varicolored autumn leaves and flowers, we gaily danced to the music of Fred Boyd's orchestra at our first class affair, the Freshman Party. It was the best and last dance of it's kind to be held in the old gym. In February of '54, we moved into a marvelous new building, a thrill and a privilege for all of us. A trip to Valley Forge rounded out the year in fine style.

Trips to Gettysburg, the Philadelphia Art Museum, the Zoo, and Longwood Gardens were all included in our busy Sophomore year. In the early spring, we held our Sophomore Hop, decorated in gay pastels, under a motif of April Showers.

On to the Junior year. We spent a lot of time planning that nine months. An early start with our Kernel, Commencement duties, and of course, the Junior Prom, kept us busy right up to the last moment. Our Prom took place in a delightful "Country Garden," and everyone spent a merry evening dancing around the wishing well to the strains of Tommy Donahue's orchestra.

Last and most eventful of all, our Senior year. For the first time in years, we have a championship basketball team to be proud of. We have been luckier than other classes in that we took an extra trip to Washington to see the inauguration. The Senior Play, the Senior Trip, and our goal, graduation, all lie ahead of us.

Our teachers and administration have done their part in preparing us for a future in the larger, newer world that we are about to enter. Our thanks and appreciation go to them for their careful help and guidance.

Soccer

Our soccer team, led by Captain Rich Kellett, presented O.A.H.S. with its best team in many years.

The boys displayed hustle and sportsmanship during every game.

The seniors leaving this year, Rich Kellett, Russell Stevenson, George Havelow, Jimmie Emery, Sam Rothman and Rich Stephens wish best of luck to our teams of the future.

Girls' Basketball

Fighting spirit, keen competition, and outstanding ability are synonyms for the games played by our excellent varsity basketball team this year. The fine coaching of Mrs. Shepherd and the co-operation displayed by the girls carried them through an undefeated season —the first time in more than ten years.

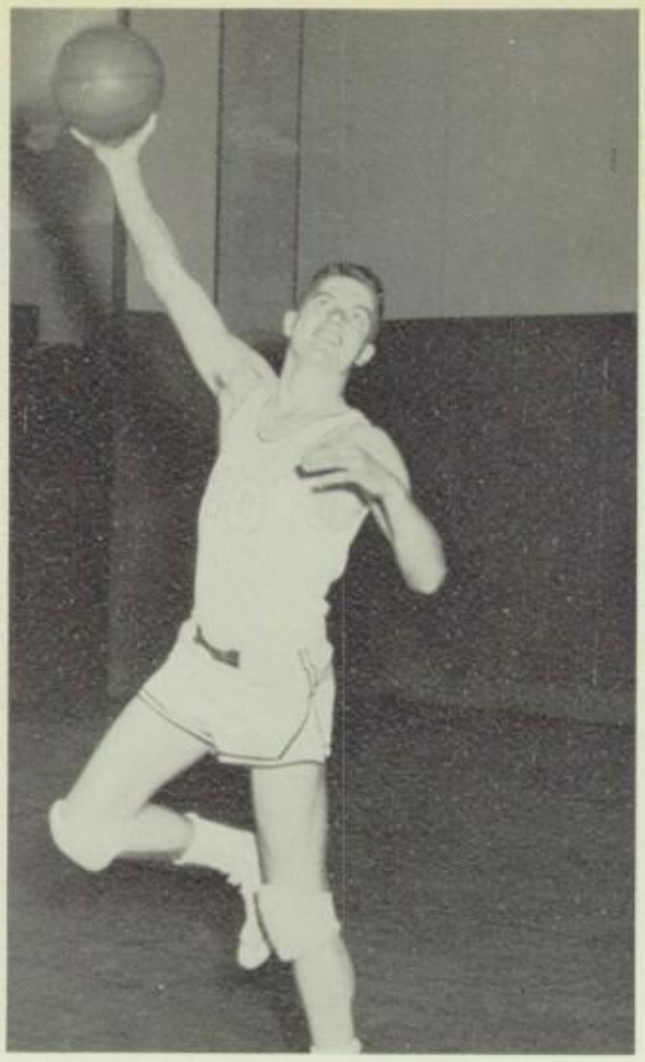
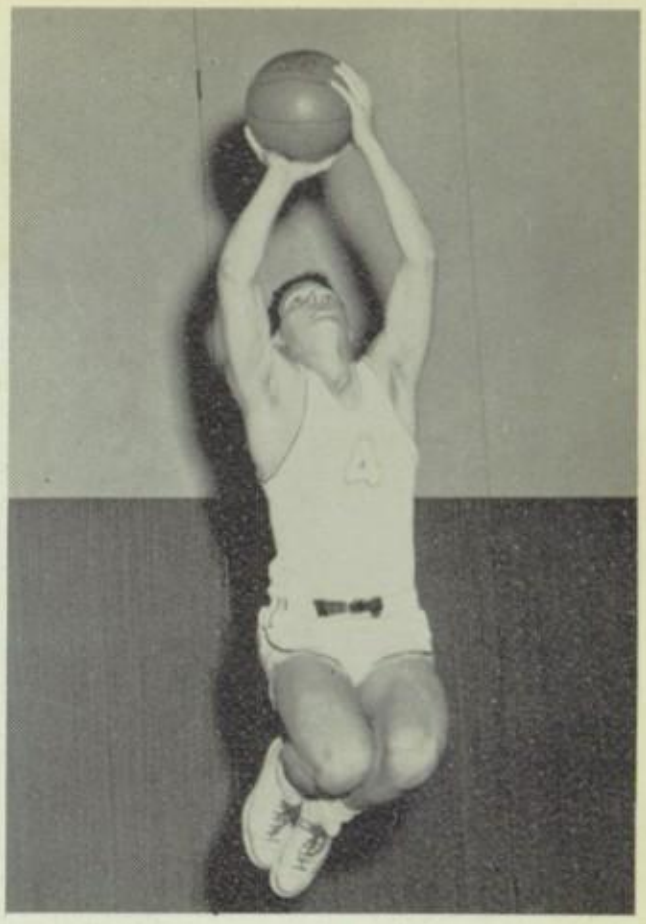
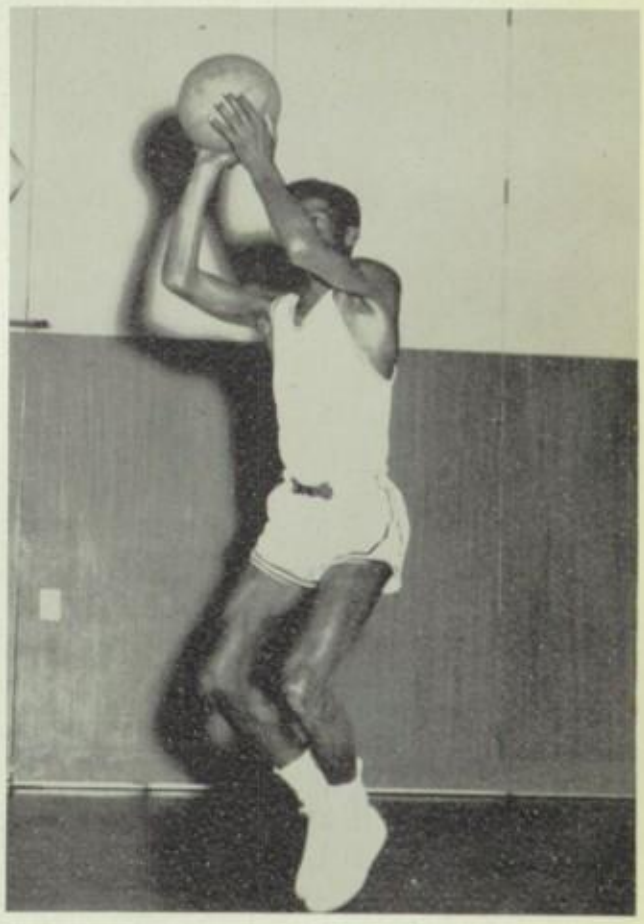
The Champions

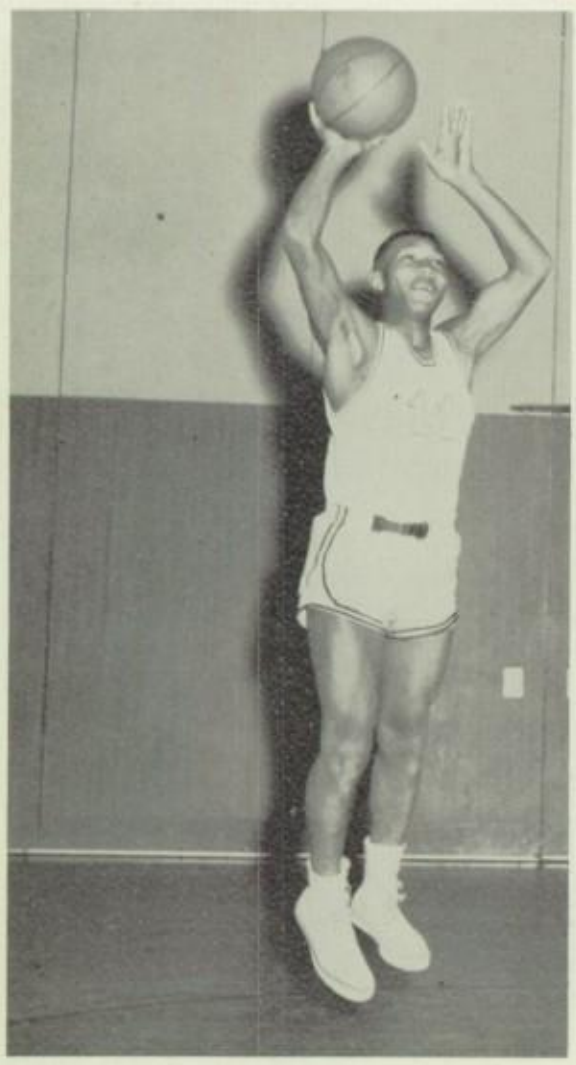
This year the "Hornets" won their first league championship since 1939. The team; led by captain Bill Bard, who won the league scoring championship with 203 points, Rich Kellett, Berky Nelson, Bill and Gene Draper; won 17 games and lost only 2. The team got great reserve help from Stan Jones, Jim Emery, Russ Stevenson, George Havelow, and Freemont Hardy. If it hadn't been for these reserves the Hornets wouldn't have pulled out a couple of games. A lot of the credit should go to Mr. Neff, our very able coach, who has spent many hours working with this team. The Hornets will be in the District One playoffs playing Darby High School. We wish them lots of luck.

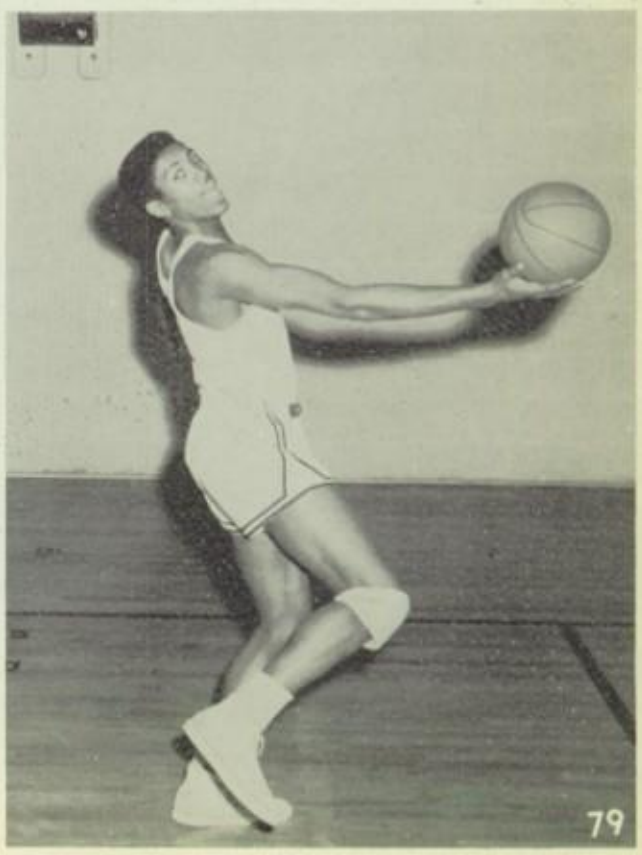
This year's team wished to express its thanks to Mr. Neff and the Seniors want to wish next year's team the best of luck.











Cheerleaders

The cheerleaders led the students in cheers faithfully and enthusiastically for our basketball and soccer teams.

The girls are proud to accompany the Championship basketball team to the play-offs at West Chester.

"Min" Slauch, a peppy, enthusiastic captain, led her squad, made up of two Seniors and three Juniors, through a very successful season.

The seniors wish all the future O.A.H.S. cheerleaders the best of luck.
